Description:

Your New Home in Quarteira: Comfort, Leisure and Centrality All Year Round. Live with the quality of life you deserve in a spacious apartment, with excellent access and all amenities at the doorstep. If you are looking for the ideal place to settle your residence in the Algarve, this fantastic 2-bedroom apartment in Quarteira offers the perfect balance between interior comfort, leisure and a unique ease in everyday life. The kitchen is fully equipped with all the necessary appliances. The apartment stands out for its good areas and excellent space distribution. The living room, large and bright, extends to a pleasant private balcony, creating the perfect environment to relax and enjoy the Algarve climate. The apartment also has a second balcony with a direct view of the pool, ideal for moments of relaxation. Equipped with air conditioning in all main rooms, it guarantees an air-conditioned environment and optimal thermal comfort during the four seasons. The property has two generous bedrooms, one of which is an excellent suite that ensures total privacy and convenience for the couple. Inserted in a modern building with elevator, the condominium was designed to elevate your daily well-being. You can enjoy the exclusive pools for adults and children on warmer days and maintain your training routine at no extra cost through free access to the complex's gym. The organization of your space is guaranteed with a private parking space in the underground garage and a closed storage room. The strategic location in Quarteira is one of the great arguments of this property for own housing. Located right in front of the Continente supermarket, it solves daily shopping on foot and effortlessly. In addition, it benefits from exceptional road mobility: with quick and direct departures from the city, it has immediate connections to the National Road 125 and Via do Infante (A22), allowing you to travel anywhere in the region with total speed.
