Description:

Positioned within one of Phuket's most prestigious residential enclaves, this exceptional sea view residence in Cape Yamu offers what are arguably some of the finest panoramic ocean views available from any private home or villa on the island. The uninterrupted east-facing outlook stretches across the breathtaking waters of Phang Nga Bay, capturing its dramatic limestone hongs, emerald islands, and crystal-clear azure seas, with the distant peaks of Krabi creating a spectacular natural backdrop. The ever-changing scenery, particularly at sunrise, delivers a truly unique and tranquil coastal living experience.

The residence comprises 4 spacious bedrooms and 5 bathrooms, offering generous accommodation ideal for family living, entertaining, or luxury holiday use.

approximately 1,000 sq.m. of built-up area, providing expansive living and entertaining spaces across multiple levels, all designed to maximize the spectacular panoramic sea views.

The residence offers substantial potential for renovation, enhancement, or further development, while already serving as an impressive private retreat with extraordinary natural surroundings. The accommodation is spacious and well maintained, comprising four bedrooms and five bathrooms, alongside a large open-plan lounge and dining area designed to maximize the panoramic sea views and natural light throughout the home.

Externally, the property is arranged across multiple landscaped levels, creating a series of inviting outdoor spaces that integrate harmoniously with the hillside setting. Features include shaded terraces, expansive sun decks, mature tropical landscaping, and a distinctive stone swimming pool overlooking the bay. Ample private parking is also provided within the grounds.

Combining privacy, prestige, and unmatched panoramic scenery, this is a rare opportunity to acquire a landmark sea view property in one of Phuket's most exclusive and tightly held locations.
