Project Overview

La Cascata Port Ghalib is a premium residential resort located within one of the Red Sea's most established marina destinations. The project combines resort-style amenities with freehold ownership opportunities for international buyers. Residents benefit from professional management services, landscaped surroundings, security, and private beach access, making ownership simple and convenient. The development is designed for both lifestyle buyers and investors looking for rental income potential in a high-demand tourism area. With sea, pool, and garden views throughout the project, La Cascata offers a relaxed coastal environment with long-term value. The combination of location, facilities, and management support makes it attractive for holiday use, permanent living, and short-term rentals.
