Description:

Sea Front Farmhouse for Renovation or Rebuild in Fuseta, East Algarve

A rare opportunity to purchase a traditional Algarve farmhouse in a prime sea front location within walking distance of the stunning Ria Formosa coastline near Fuseta. Ideal for renovation, redevelopment, or investment, this unique property offers exceptional potential in one of the Eastern Algarves most sought-after settings.

Currently arranged as a semi-detached farmhouse of approximately 70m², the property offers simple accommodation comprising 1 bedroom, living room, kitchen, and bathroom. However, the true value lies in the development potential.

A pre-study has already been carried out, indicating the possibility to construct a larger detached single-storey villa of approximately 150m² on the quinta plot. The proposed redesign would also reposition the house further from the neighbouring property, creating greater privacy and enhancing the overall layout and lifestyle appeal.

Situated in the heart of the Ria Formosa Natural Park, this property presents two highly desirable options: renovate and retain the charm of the traditional farmhouse, or create a modern detached coastal home tailored to contemporary living. Opportunities offering this level of flexibility in such a privileged location are increasingly rare.

Fuseta is one of the Algarves hidden gems a traditional fishing village with an authentic Portuguese atmosphere, calmer and more relaxed than many coastal resorts. The village enjoys easy access to a beautiful lagoon beach, fresh seafood restaurants, local markets, and boat connections to the famous island beaches of the Ria Formosa.

Perfectly positioned between the historic towns of Olhão and Tavira, residents can enjoy the best of the Eastern Algarve, from charming cobbled streets and marinas to nature reserves, birdwatching, and protected coastal landscapes rich in flora and fauna.
