Description:

Reference: 04475. Located on the sixth floor of the Club Paraíso residential complex, this apartment enjoys a southeast orientation that provides excellent luminosity for much of the day, as well as pleasant open views towards the mountains and the sea. The house was originally designed with 1 bedroom, although it has been adapted to have 2 bedrooms, offering a more versatile and functional distribution, ideal for either a habitual residence or investment. The living room is cozy and bright, with access to clear views that provide a pleasant feeling of spaciousness. The kitchen integrates perfectly into the space, allowing you to make the most of every square meter of the property. Thanks to its location on a high floor, the apartment enjoys tranquility, good natural ventilation and excellent light entry. The southeast orientation allows you to take advantage of the morning sun and maintain a pleasant temperature throughout the year. Club Paraíso is a well-known and sought-after complex, located in an area with easy access to services, shops, restaurants and transport connections, as well as a short distance from the coast. An interesting opportunity for those looking for a property with views, a good location and an adapted distribution to make the most of the space.
