Description:

Perched in one of Tavira's most prestigious addresses in the East Algarve, this exceptional brand new 3 bedroom villa offering the flexibility to create a 4th bedroom on the ground floor if desired is now for sale. Enjoying a commanding south-facing position with sweeping sea and city views, the property is bathed in natural light and designed to maximise its elevated outlook. The villa's modern architecture is defined by expansive sliding glass doors and open-plan living spaces that create a seamless connection between indoors and out. Reception areas are flooded with sunlight throughout the day, enhancing the sense of space and flow. The heart of the home is a beautifully appointed open-plan kitchen and living area, designed for both everyday living and entertaining, which opens directly onto a stunning pool terrace. The outdoor space features a large swimming pool and wrap-around terrace perfect for enjoying the Algarve lifestyle. Accommodation is thoughtfully arranged, with 3 generous en-suite bedrooms on the first floor, each designed with comfort and privacy in mind. On the ground floor, there is flexibility to create a fourth bedroom if required, making the home adaptable for families or guests. The spacious basement provides a double garage along with ample additional space, ideal for a fully equipped gym, cinema, or storage. Above, the rooftop terrace offers breathtaking panoramic views across the coastline and Tavira's charming skyline, an ideal setting for sunset relaxation or entertaining. The villa is finished to an exceptional standard, featuring a state-of-the-art kitchen with Calacatta worktops and central island, reversible air conditioning, and water-circulated underfloor heating powered by an energy-efficient heat pump. Electric shutters with central control add convenience and security throughout. This is a rare opportunity to acquire a sophisticated, light-filled villa in a prime East Algarve location, combining cutting-edge design with luxurious comfort and spectacular views.

TAVIRA

Set on either side of the meandering Rio Gilão and affectionately known as The Venice of The Algarve, Tavira is arguably the Algarve's most charming town. The old Roman bridge, the ruins of a hilltop castle and an astonishing 37 churches with the oldest dating back to the Middle Ages, are among many of Tavira's historic attractions. An enticing collection of restaurants, cafes, bars and shops makes it the perfect sunny Portuguese destination or as an excellent base for exploring the Algarves eastern reaches. Tavira is ideal for wandering and exploring the ancient city with its many cobblestone streets, hidden green gardens and tree lined squares. There's a small, active fishing port and a modern market with Tavira also being the launching point for the stunning, unspoilt beaches of Ilha de Tavira.

BEACHES

There are several great beaches near Tavira. The coast in this area is great for long seaside walks and for bathing, as its waters are warmer than anywhere else in the Algarve.

Ilha de Cabanas: This is an island in front of the town Cabanas de Tavira, with a spectacular long and narrow beach. The sand is white and the island feels like paradise. Great for long beach walks.

Ilha de Tavira (also known as Tavira Island): Is famous for being one of the best beaches near Tavira. The beach is quite sandy and the sand is almost white. Tavira Island stretches for approximately 11 kilometres and is just 3 kilometres south from the town of Tavira. There are restaurants and the beach also holds a Blue Flag, showing the quality of the beach. It is a great destination for a day trip.

Praia do Barril: Accessible on foot or by train, this beach is known for its bizarre anchor cemetery with over 100 anchors in front of the beach. The anchors were from the tuna fishing community, which disappeared when the bluefin tuna moved to other waters. The beach itself is also very big and also incredibly beautiful.

RESTAURANTS

There are many top rated restaurants in Tavira. If you like food, you won't be disappointed here. From local cuisine to fine dining, you can find it all in the area.
