Description:

1 bedroom bank apartment on the ground floor of a small building located in Baixa da Banheira, municipality of Moita

We present this 1 bedroom apartment located on Rua de Diu, in Baixa da Banheira, inserted in a consolidated residential area and much sought after due to its proximity to commerce, services, green spaces, public transport and main road accesses.

The property benefits from a privileged location next to Zeca Afonso Park, offering convenience for everyday life and a good quality of life.

Located on the left ground floor of a small residential building, the apartment consists of an entrance hall, living room, kitchen, a bedroom, bathroom and sunroom, providing a functional distribution of spaces and good versatility of use.

The surroundings are characterized by the existence of several commercial establishments, services, schools and transport, as well as easy parking on the public road.

The local real estate market presents a balanced demand, making this an interesting solution for both own housing and investment.

The property needs modernization and improvement works, providing an excellent opportunity to customize the space to your liking and enhance it according to your needs.

If you are looking for an apartment with potential for appreciation, in a central location and with good accessibility, this may be the ideal opportunity.

NOTES: Views of the property on an open house basis on Thursday, July 23 between 10 am and 1 pm by appointment.
