Description:

Charming Countryside Villa for Sale in Moncarapacho, Eastern Algarve with Large Private Plot.

Peaceful Algarve Country Home Close to Beaches, Golf and Amenities.

A little gem of a property in a sought-after countryside location, this villa combines authentic Algarve character with exciting potential. Although some maintenance and upgrading may be required, the structure, attractive plot, and excellent location create a wonderful opportunity to transform the property into a delightful permanent residence, holiday home, or investment in the Eastern Algarve.

Nestled in the beautiful countryside near to Moncarapacho in the Eastern Algarve, this charming detached 2-bedroom villa offers the perfect combination of privacy, tranquillity, and convenience. Set on a generous 3,880 m² plot surrounded by traditional Algarve vegetation, this attractive country property remains just minutes from local amenities, stunning beaches, and golf facilities.

Property Overview

Located just a short drive from the popular village of Moncarapacho and the beautiful beaches of Fuseta, this single-storey villa offers comfortable living in a peaceful rural setting. The flat and easily maintained plot is dotted with mature Mediterranean trees and shrubs, creating a natural and private environment that perfectly complements the relaxed Algarve way of life.

The property benefits from excellent privacy while still enjoying the reassurance of nearby neighbouring homes. Additional features such as a private borehole and cistern further enhance its practicality and independence.
