DWEL — A Place to Call Home. Discover contemporary island living at DWEL Properties, an exciting new private gated community located along the Bodden Town Bypass near Lookout Gardens, Grand Cayman. Designed and developed by Caymanian entrepreneur Dean M. Wood, DWEL brings together modern architecture, quality construction, energy-efficient features and desirable community amenities to create a development that feels distinctly like home. Whether you're searching for a new home in the Cayman Islands, a modern Bodden Town property, or a Grand Cayman real estate investment, DWEL offers an attractive opportunity to own in one of Cayman's growing residential communities. Modern Cayman Islands Living DWEL has been thoughtfully designed for comfortable, low-maintenance Caribbean living. The development combines contemporary interiors with durable construction and quality finishes, creating homes designed for both everyday living and long-term ownership. Residents will enjoy the privacy of a gated community together with shared amenities including a swimming pool, gym and clubhouse, professionally landscaped surroundings and convenient parking. The location along the Bodden Town Bypass provides convenient connectivity while allowing homeowners to enjoy the residential character and community atmosphere of Bodden Town. Two-Bedroom Townhome The spacious 2-bedroom, 2.5-bathroom townhouse offers approximately 1,550 sq. ft. of thoughtfully planned living space across a contemporary open floor plan. The home features a full kitchen with Shaker-style solid wood cabinetry, quartz or granite countertops and stainless-steel appliances, complemented by porcelain flooring and contemporary recessed LED lighting. High ceilings, sliding glass doors and an open-plan living and kitchen area create a bright, modern interior designed for relaxed Cayman living and entertaining.
