Description:

Commercial store with good visibility, in Alto do Forno, Figueira da Foz.

We present this commercial space with unique characteristics, located in Alto do Forno, close to the centre of Figueira da Foz, in an area with good circulation, visibility and easy access.

Inserted on the ground floor of a residential building and surrounded by several commercial and service establishments, this store benefits from a large and versatile area, suitable for the development of different professional or commercial activities.

Residential area between the Joaquim de Carvalho High School and the beaches of Buarcos.

The size of the space allows the creation of several functional areas, adapting it to the needs of each business and enhancing its use and enhancement.

The property consists of:

- A large living room in open space;
- Two sanitary facilities;
- Private terrace with excellent natural light;
- Ease of public parking in the vicinity, and good access;
- Pleasant living environment, close to green spaces, shops, services and beaches.

If you are looking for a large, bright and adaptable store, in a location close to the city centre, this may be the ideal space to carry out your project.

Book your visit and discover the full potential of this property.
