Description:

3 bedroom townhouse with three floors, garage and balconies in all rooms, in a privileged location at the gates of Quinta do Lago and Vale do Lobo.

We present this pleasant 3 bedroom villa, spread over three floors, inserted in a quiet and central residential area in the Al Sakia Urbanization, benefiting from a privileged location, close to restaurants, shops, services and the main amenities of everyday life.

The villa stands out for its generous areas, the excellent distribution of spaces and, above all, the presence of a balcony in all rooms, providing abundant natural light, ventilation and a pleasant connection to the outside.

On the lower floor there is a large garage, equipped with bathroom and laundry. Due to its size and versatility, this space offers numerous possibilities of use, and can be converted into a comfortable games room, gym, office or a true "man cave", while still maintaining enough space for parking one or two vehicles.

On the ground floor is the social area of the villa, consisting of a spacious living and dining room, kitchen and a service bathroom. Both the living room and the kitchen have direct access to the balcony, creating pleasant spaces for moments of conviviality and leisure.

The first floor is dedicated to the private area, where we find three bedrooms, two of which are en suite. All rooms also have a balcony, allowing each space to benefit from natural light and a pleasant private outdoor area.

The location is another of the great attributes of this property. Located in a quiet residential area, but at the same time close to restaurants, shops and services, it is just minutes from some of the most prestigious areas of the Algarve, namely Quinta do Lago and Vale do Lobo, allowing you to enjoy all the leisure, beaches, golf and restaurants that this region has to offer.

A versatile and comfortable villa, with excellent possibilities of use, which brings together space, privacy, tranquility and an excellent location, being an excellent option both for permanent residence and for a holiday home or investment.
