Description:

Are you dreaming of owning a home in Spain, surrounded by peace and nature while remaining within easy reach of charming towns and the coast? In Aspe and the surrounding area, we build stylish detached villas on spacious plots, with privacy, comfort and Mediterranean outdoor living at the heart of every home.

We have a selection of beautiful building plots, each carefully chosen for its location and character. Some are surrounded by the typical Spanish countryside and offer spectacular open views across the mountains and valleys. Others are located closer to the charming centre of Aspe. What they all have in common is space, tranquillity, privacy and an excellent location.

Aspe is an authentic Spanish town where you can enjoy shops, restaurants, cafés, local markets and all your everyday amenities throughout the year. At the same time, your home offers the peace and privacy you are looking for. Elche is only around 10 minutes away and Alicante approximately 20 minutes by car, putting the beaches, airport and vibrant city life within easy reach.

A villa designed around you

This is not a standard property where you simply have to adapt to a fixed design. When building your villa, you have extensive input into the plans and layout. Together, we look at the design, finishes and overall atmosphere that best suit your wishes and lifestyle.

Imagine a bright, open-plan living space where the kitchen and lounge flow naturally into one another, large windows and doors connecting the interior with the garden, spacious bedrooms with en-suite bathrooms and generous terraces surrounding your private pool. Materials, colours, kitchen, bathrooms and many other details can be personalised to give your new home your own individual touch. The architecture combines the charm of Mediterranean living with a calm, contemporary aesthetic: light natural tones, warm wood accents and careful attention to natural light, space and the connection between indoor and outdoor living.

The generous plots provide plenty of room for a private swimming pool, sun terraces, Mediterranean gardens and a comfortable covered outdoor living area. Here, outdoor living is not just something to enjoy during the summer months – it becomes part of everyday life.

Whether you are looking for a permanent residence, a second home under the Spanish sun or a wonderful place to enjoy with family and friends, this is your opportunity to create a villa that is not only beautiful, but above all truly yours.

Your villa. Your plot. Your style. In a beautiful location in and around Aspe, with all the space and freedom to turn your Spanish dream into reality.
