ABOUT THE AREA

Vilamoura is a resort in the Algarve region of southern Portugal. It's known for its large marina, golf courses and casino, and for sandy Vilamoura Beach. Cerro da Vila archaeological museum has a ruined Roman villa with bathhouses and mosaics. Red cliffs line Falesia Beach, which stretches west to the fishing village Olhos de Água. Vilamoura merges with the town of Quarteira, to the southeast, with more beaches.

Vilamoura is one of the most prestigious leisure resorts in Portugal. Purpose-built in the 1970s, Vilamoura was designed to provide a wealth of activities and entertainment to visitors of all ages. As well as an award-winning marina, Vilamoura is home to some of world's best golf courses, outstanding leisure facilities, stunning beaches, nature trails and cycle paths.

At the heart of Vilamoura, this stunning marina has been awarded the title International Marina of the Year, by The Yacht Harbour Association (TYHA) on multiple occasions. Take a stroll around the Marina any time of day or night, there's always a great atmosphere and plenty to see.

If you're a keen golfer, Vilamoura is the perfect destination for you. There's a choice of six superb golf courses on your doorstep, including the championship Victoria Golf Course - Dom Pedro Golf - famous for hosting the Portugal Masters leg of the European Tour. If you're looking for a golf-themed family day out make sure Family Golf Park is on your list.

Vilamoura is popular with celebrities. Many familiar faces have been spotted around the Marina. Footballer Luis Figo and Portuguese jet setter Paulo China own Sete Cafe, and Portuguese footballer Cristiano Ronaldo owns property in the resort and you can visit this CR7 fashion shop on the Marina.

The nightlife of Vilamoura gets animated around the area of the Marina, where there are several restaurants and bars where to spend the night. Many of these bars are famous around the whole Algarve region, attracting a large number of tourists, especially on summer time.
