Ballinclare,
Gorey,
Co. Wexford
Ireland

With its glorious natural scenery, excellent climate, welcoming culture and excellent standards of living, Ireland is quickly gaining a reputation as one of the most desirable places across the world to live or visit. On offer here is a chance to make a smart financial investment in this magnificent part of the world.

This impressive residence is just 1 km Ballycanew, 33 km's Wexford, 9 km's Gorey and the M.11 and a little over an hour's drive from Dublin South. Upon entering through the double rot iron gate entrance you are greeted with a sweeping cobble blocked, tree lined avenue which open up to a majestic home completely faced in stone and built of block construction in 2001 to very high standard of specification.

The residence has beautifully matriculated gardens featuring a large variety of matured trees. Cooper beech, Eucalyptus, Ash, Oak, maple and many others.

Enjoy the privacy these gardens provide you with and your family. There is ample room for storage situated all over the home including a spacious walk in hot-press with built in shelving.

The house has been very well maintained and viewing of this property is highly recommended.

ABOUT THE AREA

Gorey is a market town in north County Wexford, Ireland. It is beside the main M11 Dublin to Wexford road. The town is also connected to the railway network along the same route. Local newspapers include the Gorey Guardian.

Gorey is just 50 minutes from the M50 and south Dublin, with North Wexford one of the gems of Ireland's Ancient East.

In Gorey, there are shops to suit everyone: fashion boutiques, book shops, hair and beauty salons, florists, restaurants and cafes. Traditional shop fronts with hanging baskets give the village a welcoming feel. There is a wide choice of pubs, guest house accommodation, and hotels to suit all tastes.

Surrounded by numerous top-level golf clubs, Gorey boasts a wide variety of activities from the historic Ferns to the seaside village of Courtown to the modern traditional market town of Gorey itself. Its state of the art skate and play park and cultural hub in the Gorey Little Theatre, which hosts year round entertainment, ensure that all tastes are catered for.
