Description:

Set within Varandas do Lago, one of the most sought-after addresses in the Golden Triangle, this seven-bedroom villa offers space, privacy and a genuine sense of ease, all within easy reach of Quinta do Lago and Almancil.

From the entrance hall, the layout opens naturally into the heart of the home, an open-plan kitchen and dining room that flows directly out to the garden and pool, built around the way a family actually lives day to day. A separate, more formal living room sits apart from this, with a gas fireplace and generous natural light offering a quieter space to settle into. A guest toilet and one further ensuite bedroom complete the ground floor, giving the home flexibility from the moment you step inside.

Upstairs, four ensuite bedrooms unfold across the first floor, each bright and well-proportioned in its own right. The principal suite sits apart from the rest, opening onto a large terrace where the view stretches out towards the sea, a space that feels entirely its own. Outside, the garden wraps around a generous pool and jacuzzi, framed by covered lounging areas that carry the home comfortably from summer entertaining into quieter, year-round living.

The lower level introduces a different rhythm altogether. A games room, bar and TV room create a natural space to unwind, alongside two further bedrooms and a double garage, practical additions that never feel like an afterthought. Air conditioning, underfloor heating, electric shutters and an alarm system run throughout, so the house holds its comfort through every season. What this home offers, ultimately, is completeness: a residence with room to grow into, close to the beach, the golf courses and the restaurants that define this part of the Algarve, equally suited to family life or a considered investment.
