Description:

Located in Szászvár.

In the county of Baranya, in the center of Szászvár, right next to the Castle of Szászvár, we offer for sale a 100 m², 2-room, unique property with a 300 m² plot.

The building is one of the characteristic, well-recognizable properties of Szászvár, which, thanks to its location and design, can be used for both residential and business purposes. offers.

Complete reconstruction The property recently underwent a comprehensive reconstruction, the entire process of which was documented with photographs.

During the works, the interior surfaces of the building were dismantled down to the bricks and then replastered, in addition, the technical systems and a significant part of the interior design were also completely renewed.

The renovation included, among other things, the following including:

- replacement of the entire electrical network
- replacement of the entire water network
- replacement of all windows and doors
- new coverings
- new stairs
- renovated ceilings
- new mechanical elements
- new, high-quality sanitary ware

new roof structure in good condition

Currently from the reconstruction the exterior coloring is still to be done.

Special locationThe property is located in the center of Szászvár, right next to the Szászvár Castle. A stream flows next to the plot, which further strengthens the unique atmosphere of the property.

Szászvár is located in the area of Eastern Mecsek, as the natural center of several smaller surrounding settlements, so the property can be interesting not only as a residential property, but also for business, service or other investment purposes if the right idea is provided.

The characterful appearance of the building, its central location and the significant reconstruction carried out they provide features that are rarely found in a single property.
