Description:

Blue Lagoon is a luxury seaside development in Loutraki, Greece, offering fully serviced residences designed around contemporary coastal living and effortless ownership. Set in a year-round destination known for its beautiful coastline, thermal spas and relaxed Mediterranean atmosphere, the development combines lifestyle appeal with an attractive investment proposition.

These studio apartments are designed to provide comfortable, modern living in a compact and efficient layout. Each residence benefits from a private veranda, creating an additional outdoor living space where owners and guests can enjoy the coastal surroundings.

Residents have access to an impressive collection of lifestyle amenities, including a rooftop lounge with seafront views, state-of-the-art gym, wellness centre, café and restaurant, cocktail bar, tanning beds and open lounge areas. Smart security systems further contribute to a convenient and secure residential environment.

The location adds to the property's appeal. Loutraki is an established destination for both summer and year-round tourism, with its seaside promenade, beaches and thermal springs complemented by easy access to Ancient Corinth and the Corinth Canal. Its proximity to Athens makes it particularly attractive for weekend stays, holidays and short-term rental demand.

The ownership experience is designed to be as hands-free as possible, with professional services covering the preparation, furnishing, decoration and ongoing management of the property. This allows owners to benefit from their investment without taking on the everyday responsibilities of operating a holiday rental.

For investors looking for a managed coastal property in Greece, the Blue Lagoon studios offer an opportunity to combine personal use, Mediterranean lifestyle and rental potential within a professionally operated development.
