A further one-bedroom house includes a kitchen, sitting room and bathroom, providing useful independent accommodation for guests, family or other purposes.

Mature Gardens and Outdoor Living

The fully enclosed 5,360 m² grounds are one of the property's main attractions, with mature trees, established shrubs, fruit trees, winding paths, secluded seating areas, a pond and numerous characterful garden sheds.

A large shaded terrace with outdoor kitchen and BBQ is ideal for relaxed Algarve outdoor living. A converted water tank provides a simple plunge pool, while automatic irrigation supplied by dam water helps maintain the extensive gardens.

The established planting includes olive, avocado, orange, lemon, kiwi, carob and other mature trees and shrubs.

A Property with Character and Potential

This is not a conventional modern villa. It is a private property near Tavira with land, guest accommodation and genuine character, suited to buyers looking for something individual.

The flexible layout could work particularly well for a family, multi-generational household or buyers seeking a house with land near Tavira and independent accommodation. It may also offer potential for a small guest or hospitality project, subject to planning, licensing and other required permissions.

Buyers seeking a low-maintenance, conventional villa may prefer a different type of property. For those looking for privacy, mature gardens, flexible accommodation and space in the Algarve, this unusual property offers considerable potential.
