ARGELES sur MER is a sought-after traditional market town on France's Mediterranean coast, situated 25 kms from Perpignan and less than this to the Spanish border. In the Catalan-style old town, history is everywhere as are the wonderful views of the Alberes foot hills. The town has a super array of facilities, shops and restaurants as well as its popular twice weekly fresh produce market, established in the 13th century. Known also for its' stunning 7km long sandy beach, with that mountain backdrop and its seafront promenade, Argeles is both a popular holiday destination and a wonderful place to live on a permanent basis.
