Description:

The property consists of two independent houses, each with its own private entrance, offering privacy, flexibility, and a rare sense of autonomy.

First House

Upon entering, you are welcomed into an open-plan space that includes the living area with a fireplace, a double bed, the dining area, and a fully equipped kitchen. There is also a small room with a wardrobe, ideal for use as a children's room, along with a comfortable bathroom featuring a bathtub.

Both indoors and outdoors, the house is defined by light blue and white tones, with an airy, romantic décor in soft blue shades that creates a calm and elegant atmosphere.

Just before entering the second house, on the left, there is a covered balcony with a table and chairs—an ideal spot to enjoy the scenery at any time of day, surrounded by chestnut trees, hydrangeas, and tall plane trees.

Second House

The entrance leads into the main living room with a fireplace, featuring a corner sofa-bed that can accommodate two guests, an antique chest of drawers, and a mirror from another era. This is followed by a dining area suitable for breakfast, lunch, or dinner, while slightly further inside is the fully equipped kitchen. A small guest WC is also located on this level.

Upstairs, there are two bedrooms, each with a double bed, along with a spacious bathroom featuring a bathtub. The levels are connected by a wooden staircase.

One of the most charming features of the house is the atrium—a sitting area enclosed by glass on all sides. In winter, it offers views of snow-covered mountains or the dramatic sea, enjoyed with a warm or cold drink, depending on the season.

The courtyards include a small swimming pool (3 × 2 m) and a large jacuzzi (2.5 × 2.5 m) accommodating up to four people, perfect for refreshing swims under the sun or the starry night sky. The remaining outdoor space features built-in garden seating, ideal for relaxation, reading, or al fresco dining. Wi-Fi is available throughout the property.

The village is known for its impressive mansions of traditional Pelion architecture, alongside residences built around a century ago by locals who had emigrated and later returned, introducing different architectural influences.

The famous Mylopotamos, the coastal harbor of Tsagkarada, features two beautiful sandy beaches with fine pebbles that do not stick to the skin, forming a striking Aegean seaside setting. Equally wild and impressive is Fakistra Beach. From there, one can reach by boat the cave of Panagia Megalomata, dedicated to the Virgin Mary, which according to tradition also housed a “Secret School” during the Ottoman period.

For winter sports enthusiasts, the Pelion Ski Center is located approximately 21 km away, about 30 minutes by car.
