Description:

An excellent opportunity to develop your next business venture in Lo Pagán, just 50 metres from the Mar Menor and on the second line from the beach. This spacious commercial premises, with a registered floor area of 500 m², stands out for its generous dimensions and, above all, for the versatility it offers in adapting it to different business concepts. The property is currently set up as a ball pit play centre with a café. However, thanks to its size and layout, it offers numerous possibilities for running virtually any type of commercial venture, such as a restaurant, gym, leisure centre, training centre, clinic or local supermarket, amongst other options. The premises feature two toilets, a spacious storage area, a fully equipped café and disabled access, features which provide functionality and comfort for both customers and staff. Its location is another of its main attractions. Lo Pagán is a tourist and residential area with a significant flow of visitors throughout the year, providing the premises with an attractive combination of visibility and profit potential for a future investment. A spacious venue with endless possibilities, situated very close to the Mar Menor and ready to become the home of a new business venture.
