The hotel is located in front of Altea Hills, next to the Mascarat, between sea and mountains, with walking access to the beach. It is in an area with a lot of visibility, which is ideal for business, and with easy and quick access to the roads and highways in the area.

It is a hotel that has been working very well for years, but the manager has just passed away. That's why it sells, otherwise it wouldn't sell because it's a profitable business with loyal customers who come back every year.

It has 26 rooms with shower and toilet each.
