On this urban plot of land, embedded in a green area with views to the bay of La Herradura, it is possible to build a hotel of up to 4 stories. The plot is approximately 1800 m² and for each square meter of land you can build 1.3 square meters (not including basements and technical rooms), plus 10% of the plot size for secondary use. From the plot, the village of La Herradura is about 5 minutes in car (and can even be reached on foot, as well as the beach) and Marina del Este is just 10 minutes away. The motorway to Málaga and Granada is just 5 minutes away, so there is easy access to the airports and Sierra Nevada making this an ideal location for a hotel.
