Description

This unique golf land is available for investors who love to develop a Golf Course

There are 515 acres (2,083.987 square meters) of golf land for more than 200 lots available. All feature ocean or tropical rainforest views on the north coast of the Dominican Republic.

It could be the unique Golf Course in this area. The land site is located in one of the most beautiful areas of the island in the rolling hills between Sosua and Cabarete.

The eventual future 18-hole championship Golf Course features panoramic ocean views from the lush and hilly topography that defines the North Coast. The par-72 Golf Course will challenge even pro-level players in a tropical environment rich in views and diverse terrain. With an annual average temperature of 78 degrees Fahrenheit ample, gentle rainfall, the tropical climate is sublime.
