ABOUT THE AREA

Just a short car ride from the lively town of Larnaca, Pervolia is a quiet village for a relaxing holiday. It's a great place for your family holiday as it is quiet, with good local amenities and great restaurants. You also have the beach less than 1km away, which does not get crowded even in the peak season. Pervolia is only about 15km from the busy town of Larnaca with shops and attractions to suit, and there is a regular bus route to and from Larnaca.

Located 16 km from Larnaka town, the coastal community of Pervolia is favoured for the more tranquil beach experience that its 4 km sandy stretch offers, along with interesting, ancient sights.

The village takes its name from the Greek word 'pervoli', which means a fertile field where produce grows. In ancient times it belonged to various royal families and high-society, and today is a favourite holiday spot for locals from other parts of the island.

Aside from its beautiful natural scenery, which also overlooks one of the lakes in the Larnaka Salt Lake network, the village has several other notable attractions. The famous lighthouse (Faros) is a relic from the island's time under British Rule, with several shipwrecks found in the surrounding seas. The old Venetian Watchtower (Rigena / Regena) is one of four in the region that remain in good condition, and included in the Thematic Cycle Routes. The village is also continually upgrading, with a new coastal walkway with pedestrian and bicycle lanes, squares, view points and access paths to the beach.

Pervolia is also ideal if you are looking for day trips as well as you can reach all of the Southern Cypriot towns and back in a day. Pervolia is an idyllic Cypriot village. You will not find any big hotels or complexes, just friendly locals. The quiet beaches around the apartment in Pervolia are ideal for families with young children, with a gradual incline into the sea.
