Boliqueime is a great place to choose to live and visit, many properties are in an elevated position enjoying peace and quiet with great country or sea views, yet you are just a short drive to the Coast, Beaches and Golf Courses. Boliqueime is a picture postcard village located in the stunning Central Algarve nestled between Albufeira to the West and Vilamoura to the East and just 9km to the Coast. Boliqueime village is literally in the Heart of the Algarve in Loule Council which is one of the biggest and wealthiest Councils of the Algarve,

Boliqueime is a traditional, residential village open all year round, not effected by the tourist season. In the heart of Boliqueime is a typical array of village shops including a post office, bank, pharmacy, mini market, schools, health centre, beauty salon, cafes, restaurants, bar, hotels, hairdresser, two supermarkets, marketing company, accountant, dentist, nursery, and an estate agent us!

In Boliqueime you will discover cobble stone streets, shepherds herding their goats, traditional street markets, annual street festivals, wide open fields and stone wall lined country lanes.

With a welcoming small Portuguese community of 5000 habitants and at the very heart of the village centre is a charming village square with 17th Century Church. Each day you will hear the chime of the Church Bells the beautiful chosen venue for many local and international weddings. The sound of the beep of the car horn from the Fishman and Breadman with queues of locals at their white vans to buy their fresh supplies of the day. Boliqueime has a great transport network with its own train station with services to Faro, Lagos and connections to Lisbon as well as regular bus routes, main road systems A22, EN125, EN270 and close to the IC1 and A2 to Lisbon and beyond. Just 25 minutes drive to Faro International Airport.

Boliqueime has been featured on A Place in the Sun UK TV programme four times thanks to us and is home to many businesses, here is just a taste.

Our corner shop Diamond Properties Algarve can be found in a prime location in the centre of the pretty village of Boliqueime, we are your local Real Estate Agent experts here to help you buy or sell your property and offer a full property management service, celebrating 25 years in business.
