Rennes, the Portes Mordelaises, its medieval city gate, symbol of the history of the Dukes of Brittany, its ramparts, its preserved historic centre... When you stay at the our Apparthotel, you'll discover a rich and varied architectural heritage, from the Middle Ages to the most contemporary of architecture. Our apartment hotel's 58 apartments, from studios to one-bedroom units, are fully-equipped and furnished. They feature a living room with a double sofa bed, a double bed or two twin beds. All apartments feature a television, office space, fully-equipped kitchen (crocery, electric hobs, microwave, refrigerator), and a shower room. Available services: free internet access, weekly cleaning. Extras: breakfast, laundry, parking, etc. Location of our Bretagne hotel residence in Rennes Just a short walk from the railway station, and a few minutes from the city centre, you'll enjoy a superb setting for your trips (just 50m from bus stops and underground) and all conveniences close by: shopping centre, restaurants, cinema, library/media library, etc. You'll have easy access to the historic centre of Rennes and be well placed to visit Saint-Pierre cathedral. Take the time to explore Place de l'Hôtel de Ville: its curved building in the purest 18th century style including its clock tower and, opposite, the Opéra with its half-circle facade. Just a short walk away stands the Parliament of Brittany, one of the most prestigious monuments of Brittany's architectural heritage; you can take a moment to consider the renaissance of this fine example of 17th century architecture, magnificently restored after a fire in 1994.
