Informação adicional:

A unique estate is sold on the shore of the lake in the province of Turin, in the Piedmont region. This residence covers 4 hectares and includes the main villa, the building of the Museum of Natural Sciences, Wing and other buildings. The villa has 4 bedrooms, an extensive living room with a fireplace, a dining area and a kitchen. Decor features include terracotta floors and open brick elements. The second floor of the villa offers a large living room with a bar and access to a panoramic terrace. On the territory of the estate there are gardens, courtyards, as well as an extension for maintenance personnel and garage. The building of the Museum of Natural Sciences provides many opportunities for use, such as a conference center or a sports complex. The estate also includes an unprocessed plot of land with access to water and electricity, which allows you to realize various ideas, including the construction of a pool, a helicopter site and a football field.
