Aware of the reunion with nature, we are convinced that it is time to live differently.

That is why we create a new way of living and coexisting in balance with the planet's resources. Our architecture will be one with the jungle, it will be integrated, conserved and respect the environment. Creating a place of peace, freedom, energy, security and privacy.

TulUm is a magical little town. Surrounded by some of the most amazing natural wonders in the world. Idyllic destination for those who love to travel, explore and experience a connection with nature and with oneself. The energy of the Mayan ruins, the warmth of the sun and the good vibes have made Tulum one of the most desired destinations in the world.

Within Tulum there is a town called Francisco Uh May, which is only 5 min. from the center of Tulum and is known for its fine and unique crafts that bring you a little closer to the heart of the Mayan culture.

Fransisco Uh May will soon become the next hotspot for art, culture and a Jungle Living experience.
