Industrial warehouse located in Catal

This impressive industrial warehouse, strategically located in Catal, offers an exceptional opportunity to establish or expand your business. With a generous plot of 1700 m2 and a large built-up area of 1300 m2, this former mechanical workshop structure has been renovated and adapted to suit a variety of commercial uses.

The warehouse has complete facilities that include toilets and offices, making it a versatile space ready for immediate occupation. The offices provide a comfortable environment for business management and administration, while the spacious workspaces offer flexibility for production, warehousing or any other commercial activity.

Its privileged location at the main exit of Catal guarantees excellent visibility and accessibility, facilitating the transport of goods and attracting potential customers. This convenient location makes the warehouse an ideal option for those looking to establish themselves in an area of high commercial demand.

In short, this industrial warehouse offers a perfect combination of space, comfort and strategic location to drive the success of your business. Don't miss the opportunity to take advantage of this invaluable resource to take your business to the next level.
