North Tavira, 4-bedroom villa with pool and fantastic views

Located North of Tavira, 20 minutes drive from the city famous for its Roman past, many churches and beautiful Island beach. This recently built villa has all the comfort of modern amenities, lines, and aspect. It is within a small hamlet of houses and has fantastic views across the hills of this region with the sea in the distance.

Access is via a tarmac road with a driveway to the house. There is plenty of space to park just in front of the house that is set on 2 floors with an underground. basement

A few steps lead onto the hallway that has on the right-hand wing of the house 2 bedrooms with their en suite shower rooms, both with reversible A C, fitted wardrobes, UFH in the bathrooms and one room has direct access to an elevated external decking area and terraces.

From the entrance hallway are guests toilets on the side and in front is the open plan luminous living space. It has a lounge area with doors accessing the decking and terraces, a separated dining area from the lounge, divided by a central fireplace and a wide modern kitchen that has also a back door leading to the pool area.

On the top floor are 2 fantastic parental suites, one with shower room and the main bedroom with a walk-in dressing, shower, and bathtub. Both have very attractive high wooden ceilings and access to a wraparound terrace with beautiful views towards the countryside.

Outside the plot is fenced off by the pool, the pool is heated via a heat pump and has a wooden decking all around, perfect to relax. There is also a BBQ area with additional eating space in the shade. The plot is completely private with an abundance of plants, bushes and ornamental trees offering complete privacy.

Water is provided via a village borehole, septic tank. A C, UFH.
