Apartment House 650m from the Sea in Novigrad, Istria!

On the western coast of Istria lies Novigrad, a captivating town that has grown from a fishing village into a sought-after tourist destination without losing its authentic charm. Known for its natural beauty and rich cultural and natural heritage, Novigrad boasts a picturesque riviera stretching from Dajla to the mouth of the Mirna River. Its shoreline is diverse, featuring low, accessible coasts with rocky and pebble beaches. The enchanting old town, with its quaint streets, colorful buildings, and iconic umbrella displays, is sure to delight visitors. The surrounding area is ideal for exploration, offering cycling trails, wine roads, and olive oil routes. Novigrad's prime location makes it an excellent base for day trips to discover the coastal and inland towns and villages of Istria.
