ABOUT THE AREA

Nicosia, the divided capital of Cyprus, is a city steeped in history and culture. This fascinating city offers a unique blend of ancient and modern, Eastern and Western influences.

The historic walled city, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, is a captivating maze of narrow streets, Byzantine churches, and Ottoman mosques. The Venetian Walls, built in the 16th century, offer stunning panoramic views of the city. Visitors can explore the city's rich history by visiting museums, archaeological sites, and historical landmarks.

Nicosia is also a vibrant city with a thriving cultural scene. The city's numerous cafes, restaurants, and bars cater to diverse tastes, offering everything from traditional Cypriot cuisine to international delicacies. The city's lively nightlife scene, with its trendy clubs and bars, attracts young people from all over the island.

The nearest international airport to Nicosia is Larnaca International Airport (LCA). This airport is well-connected to major cities in Europe, the Middle East, and North Africa.
