Informação adicional:

Perfectly presented this gorgeous cottage offers a bijou home away for home .

Entering on the ground floor you have a lounge room with antique style gas stove for cosy winter days , lovely rustic beamed ceilings add to the charm

Through an open arch way theres a dining room with room for a four seater table , once again with beamed ceiling and a ceiling fan

From the dining room a rustic wooden door leads to a laundry area and the kitchen , which is hand built in traditional Andalucian style , it has attractive blue tiled work tops and splash back , with lots of storage underneath , there is a free standing gas stove with cook top and oven and a large fridge freezer.

Then there is the fully tiled renovated bathroom which features, walk in shower , vanity, heated towel rail and loo

On the first floor a hallway with beamed ceiling features large wardrobe . there are two nicely appointed double bedrooms , the master has air-con and high beamed ceilings , both bedrooms have windows for light and ventilation .

Then, of course there is the roof level patio which has some lovely views towards the Castillo de Hierro and the surrounding countryside , it offers space for alfresco dining and lounging , there is also a door that leads out to a back lane where you can usually find parking .

This home has been lovingly improved and maintained and the roof was renewed in the past few years .
