Hi, We are a small group of professional artists and health practitioners who are developing a new "Model HOME" project with the support of Cologne city. In an independent, large and comfortable house with a large garden, in a green and clean villa area of Cologne, We are preparing a calm and lively common living space that combines the concepts of healthy living, healthy eating, personal development and art. Our visions 1. Creating a win-win relationship* that brings expats, white-collar workers and young retirees together with professional artists and body professionals in a common space, 2. To propose a healthy and harmonious life model for both ourselves and the world, 3. We believe in the value of living in a beautiful and healthy environment, value of eating and drinking well and value of a real and active connection with the arts If you can imagine yourself living in a house with a large garden, together with a small group of people, having your own large, beautiful room and using the common areas, If you value your nutrition, your body practice, your creativity, your connection to art, your cultural and personal development, If you can allocate a total budget of 1200 Euros for your housing, Our project is not commercial orientated and as we are currently in the process of creating it as a Model, our quota is limited to a few people and it is very important for us to find the right people. If you feel that this advert speaks to you, please send us a short e-mail. Let's get acquainted and share all the details about our place and project. (Our project richer than this announcement and has a lot of details to explain). Important notes: -Our Kitchen is vegetarian and organic -Small families and single parents with 1 children are well come -People with the need of slight bodily support are well come -Animal friends are well come -Home-officers are well come -Retirees are well come With love and good wishes We are waiting for your voice, Villa MuSe- founding team.
