Informação adicional:

Located in a closed, recent and high-end condominium, this new apartment is a real haven of peace suspended above the Tagus River.

As soon as you enter, natural light guides you to a large living room with open kitchen, extended by a superb terrace offering a panoramic view of the river and the city of Lisbon. You will immediately be seduced by the harmony of the spaces, designed both for a fulfilled family life and for receiving your guests with elegance.

The owner-suite also benefits from this exceptional view, with direct access to the terrace. It offers an intimate and soothing setting, perfect for enjoying sunsets over the estuary all year round.

The other two bedrooms, each with their own bathroom, are located opposite the entrance hall and benefit from the soft morning light.
