Why Aveiro?

* Known as the 'Venice of Portugal'

* Popular year round Air B'N'B destination

* Portugal awarded "Europe's Leading Destination" for 7 consecutive years

* Portugal saw 80.3 million overnight stays in tourist accommodations in 2024

* Home to sandy beaches, brilliant beach bars, restaurants, and shops

* An hour's drive south of Porto, the town is easily accessible to international Airport

An hour's drive from Porto lies Aveiro. Often called the "Venice of Portugal," this charming coastal city is known for its picturesque canals, colourful moliceiro boats, and art nouveau architecture. Located on Portugal's Silver Coast, Aveiro blends historic charm with modern vibrancy, offering a unique mix of scenic beauty, cultural heritage, and a relaxed lifestyle.

With its beautiful beaches, like Barra and Costa Nova, and proximity to the scenic Ria de Aveiro lagoon, the city provides a perfect setting for nature lovers, food enthusiasts, and those seeking a peaceful yet lively coastal experience
