This spacious townhouse in Mollina is a property of two halves, offering both versatility and charm. The ground floor presents an open plan workspace or garage area with separate rooms for storage, already fitted with plumbing and electricity, making it ideal for a home-run business or as a rental option. This level also opens out to a generous rear patio and covered parking with space for up to four cars. On the first floor the home offers a very spacious living area with a good-sized lounge diner that leads to a balcony, five ample bedrooms, and a newly updated bathroom. The bright and well-equipped kitchen provides plenty of storage and opens onto a covered terrace with bathroom/utility room, which in turn gives access to an exterior terrace boasting views over the rear patio and the surrounding area.
