Merano - South Tyrol's Mediterranean Alpine pearl

Nestled between the peaks of the Texel Group and the gentle course of the Adige lies Merano, a traditional spa town in South Tyrol that combines Alpine nature with Mediterranean flair. Known for its mild climate, its magnificent Art Nouveau architecture and the extensive promenades along the River Passer, Merano has been attracting visitors from all over the world for centuries - from Empress Sisi to today's leisure travelers.

Merano is not only a place of well-being, but also a cultural center with renowned events such as the Merano Music Weeks, the Grape Festival Parade or the elegant Merano WineFestival. The Merano Thermal Baths, designed by star architect Matteo Thun, combine modern wellness with a regional connection to nature and offer an exclusive retreat in the heart of the city.

Obermais - Merano's most prestigious residential area

A special jewel of Merano is the elegant villa district of Maia Alta/Obermais, which is considered the absolute best location in the city. Located south-east of the city center, Obermais offers a magnificent view over the city, sunny slopes and a peaceful, green ambience - surrounded by well-tended parks, historic residences and magnificent gardens.

Here, luxury and quality of life are combined at the highest level. The proximity to the old town and the idyllic location at the foot of the vineyards and palm-lined avenues make Maia Alta the most sought-after residential area in Merano - both for locals and international second home owners. The good accessibility, proximity to renowned schools, golf courses and leisure facilities round off the overall picture.
