The Bravura Dam, located in the parish of Bensafrim, in the municipality of Lagos, is one of the main water reservoirs in the region and a place appreciated for its tranquility and natural beauty. Surrounded by green landscapes and hiking trails, it is a point of interest for those looking for contact with nature, outdoor activities or simply serene views over the reservoir.

Relevant ecological features:

The combination of fresh water, reed beds and agricultural slopes creates an ecological mosaic that supports high diversity.

The presence of exotic species is typical of reservoirs in the south of the country, with a variable impact on local biodiversity.
