Near the coast, this 3 bedroom chalet style cortijo with a generous 2,924m² plot is situated near Competa, in the Malaga province of Andalucia, Spain. Located in an elevated position with commanding valley and countryside views, you enter the easy living one level property through double gates into a large hard standing area with parking for a number of vehicles. To the front of the cortijo is a large terrace with a mature vine and more spectacular views. To the left off the terrace is a private patio area with barbecue and a storage room. From the centre of the terrace, you enter the property into a lounge and dining room with a working, open fireplace. On the right is a twin bedroom and to the left a passageway leads first to another good size twin bedroom, then opposite is the kitchen with a large pantry. The passageway continues to a 3rd twin bedroom and then into the fully tiled bathroom. Back outside, to the right of the terrace, concrete steps lead down into your extensive green space with mature trees. This detached chalet style cortijo with land and wonderful views, in a sought after location, is on the market for 350,000 euros.
