FULL DETAILS

This lovely detached one-bedroom bungalow for sale in Cap Blanc, Moraira is beautifully presented and ready to move straight into, offering everything needed for a low-maintenance home or effortless holiday retreat. Set within a small, friendly gated urbanisation with distinctive Moorish-inspired villas and bungalows, the property is in an excellent location just a short walk from beautiful rocky coves, local beaches, shops, restaurants, and everyday amenities.

The bungalow benefits from secure off-road parking and can be accessed via two large white gates leading to a designated car port, or through a wooden pedestrian gate directly into a large terrace and gravelled garden area. With a lemon tree and Mediterranean shrubs, the outdoor patio and gardens create a lovely first impression and provide an ideal space for al fresco dining and relaxing in the sun with your morning coffee.

A wooden front door opens into the hallway, on the right is a useful cloakroom storage cupboard and to the left an archway leads into the open-plan living area.

The cozy lounge and dining space features a striking domed high ceiling with stained glass skylights, adding character and natural light. Designed for year-round comfort, it includes electric radiators and hot and cold air conditioning.

All windows are double glazed aluminum wood effect with security rejas that enhance the charm. The compact kitchen is well designed with a granite worktop, modern cabinetry with pull-out storage, an induction hob with extractor, Siemens combined oven, grill and microwave, and a built-in fridge freezer. At the end of the hallway is a spacious double bedroom overlooking the side terrace, complete with fitted wardrobes and an electric radiator. Next to this is the bathroom which has been tastefully updated with modern tiling and includes a walk-in shower with rain head, a floating vanity unit, heated towel rail, and built-in storage, all finished with sleek black fittings.

The property is equipped with electric radiators throughout, and all wooden-framed double-glazed windows include blinds, mosquito screens, and rejas for added comfort and security.

Outside, a pathway to the right leads to a separate utility room housing the washing machine, hot water gas boiler, and additional storage. External stairs take you up to your large private rooftop solarium where you have views across the urbanisation and communal pool, a perfect spot for sunbathing or enjoying the evening sunsets with a cocktail.

Just a few steps away is the well-maintained communal pool, and gardens. Most of your neighbours are long-term residents, so even in the busy summer months the urbanisation has a peaceful atmosphere.

The location is a real highlight, with the Pepe la Sal supermarket and a selection of popular bars, restaurants, and amenities just a short walk away. For those who enjoy coastal walks, the nearby scenic paths are easily accessible, while the centre of Moraira, with its charming old town and L'Ampolla beach, can be reached in under eight minutes by car.
