Discover The Hills, an exclusive luxury private condominium located in São Martinho, Funchal, one of the most prestigious and sought-after areas of the island of Madeira.

This development of contemporary architecture was carefully designed to integrate sophisticated design with the natural setting of the island, providing a lifestyle marked by comfort, elegance and quality. Composed of eight low-density blocks, with only three floors each, The Hills brings together a selected set of 104 T1 and T2 apartments, developed with a focus on functionality, luminosity and premium finishes.

Within this context, this 2 bedroom apartment clearly stands out from the rest. Located in the first block, in the highest position of the development, it benefits from guaranteed and unobstructed views, greater privacy and direct and easy access. Its strategic location within the condominium adds an additional level of exclusivity and appreciation.

The property was designed for those who value not only interior comfort, but also the experience of outdoor spaces. With large areas, a harmonious distribution and a strong connection to the outside, it offers the ideal setting for moments of leisure and conviviality, whether with family or friends, always with a unique setting over the surrounding landscape.
