Informação adicional:

Located in Nogueira da Maia, this stone villa is currently in a state of ruin, providing an opportunity for those looking for a property with land and wanting to develop a renovation project from scratch.

The property has a traditional stone construction, offering a base with its own characteristics and potential to be transformed into a family home. The need for total renovation allows you to rethink the organization of spaces and adapt the property to the needs of the future owner.

Features:

Stone house

Current state: ruin

Needs full renewal

Plot of 561 m²

Construction with traditional features

Location: Rua Manuel da Silva Martins, n.º 137 Nogueira da Maia

An especially interesting property for those who value the character of traditional buildings and are looking for a project to personalize. The available land area allows us to think of a housing solution with outdoor space, creating a house adapted to the lifestyle and needs of the family.

Location

Located very close to Maia Jardim and Colégio Novo da Maia, 5 minutes from the center of Maia. It benefits from a residential environment and proximity to commerce, services, schools and transport. The location also allows good access to the main roads, facilitating travel to Porto and other areas of the Metropolitan Area.

For more information or to schedule a visit, please contact us. We are available to accompany you throughout the process.
