Informação adicional:

Brand-new tourist apartment building offering a long-term rental investment opportunity with a defined income structure. Excellent location in Malaga, next to the historic center, in an established area with a growing tourism and residential sector. Its proximity to the city's main attractions makes this location a particularly attractive opportunity for the development of tourist apartments. The property offers approximately 600 m² of constructed area, distributed over the ground floor and two upper floors, and comprises 14 studio apartments. The investment includes a 25-year rental contract with an initial gross profitability of 5.8% per annum, providing investors with a clearly defined long-term rental strategy and predictable income structure. * The photo does not correspond to the actual property.
