Why Costa Esuri?

Costa Esuri is an increasingly interesting location for buyers looking for the combination of lifestyle, value and future potential.

Set beside the Guadiana River and just minutes from the Spanish-Portuguese border, Costa Esuri offers something increasingly difficult to find: a peaceful residential environment surrounded by nature, golf and open space, while remaining exceptionally well connected.

Ayamonte town centre is approximately 7 km away, while Portugal is just across the Guadiana, giving residents easy access to the Algarve and the Portuguese towns of Vila Real de Santo António, Monte Gordo and beyond.

The area also benefits from its proximity to the beaches of Isla Canela and the wider Costa de la Luz, making it particularly attractive to holidaymakers and second-home owners.

An area with renewed momentum

One of the most exciting aspects of Costa Esuri today is the renewed development activity taking place across the area.

New residential projects are once again being introduced, including The Links Costa Esuri, where a second phase of new homes is currently being marketed with anticipated delivery in 2027. Other new-build developments are also being promoted in Costa Esuri, reflecting renewed confidence in the area's residential and investment appeal.

There is also regeneration underway around the former commercial centre of Costa Esuri. Laguna Village Esuri is being developed as a new mixed-use community concept, incorporating commercial, lifestyle, health and leisure facilities, with the stated aim of creating a more vibrant and sustainable destination for residents and visitors.

Infrastructure is also receiving attention, with the Costa Esuri community association reporting road-paving works in 2026. Longer-term plans for the wider Ayamonte area have included improved pedestrian and cycling connections between Costa Esuri and Ayamonte, as well as greener infrastructure and enhanced recreational facilities.

For buyers, this creates an interesting proposition: buy into an established community today while the surrounding area is entering a new phase of investment and regeneration.

The Lifestyle

Costa Esuri offers a relaxed Mediterranean lifestyle without sacrificing accessibility.

Spend the morning on the golf course, enjoy lunch beside the Guadiana, cross the border into Portugal for dinner, or spend the afternoon on the beaches of Isla Canela. The location makes it easy to enjoy both sides of the Spanish-Portuguese border.

With golf, beaches, restaurants, nature, river views and Portugal all close by, Costa Esuri appeals to a wide range of buyers from those looking for a peaceful second home to investors seeking a property with strong holiday appeal.

A Smart Opportunity in Costa Esuri

This apartment represents an excellent opportunity to acquire a fully furnished, move-in-ready property in an established development at a time when Costa Esuri is seeing renewed residential and commercial investment.
