Woodburn Gardens offers an exclusive approach to residential development. This stunning example of a 5-bedroom detached residence is no exception. Situated amongst 25 high specification houses, you will find this beautiful property nestled away to the rear of the development.

Walking into the property you are welcomed with a bright and spacious hallway which is illuminated by windows to the rear of the property. To your left you have a luxurious home office which is graced with a large front window creating an ideal space for working from home. This area can also double as a 5th bedroom if needed. Following from this, an abundance of light draws you to an airy living area which is ideal for the whole family to get together with patio doors leading to an extremely well-maintained garden.

To the right of the entrance hall is the hub of the home which is nothing short of magnificent. Featuring the very latest Smeg appliances, Corian worktops and a stylish kitchen island, the kitchen offers the open plan living that is so highly sought after by families. At the rear of the kitchen bi-fold doors allow the garden to flow into the home which creates a fresh airy feel all year round.

As you travel up the glass filled oak staircase light penetrates the landing which services 4 expansive double bedrooms, 3 of which feature walk-in wardrobes. The grandeur master bedroom possesses a large en-suite and palatial walk-in wardrobe, this master suite is a perfect retreat to escape and relax. The smaller but no less grand second bedroom also benefits from an en-suite shower room.

To the rear of the property a beautifully presented private garden draws you to outdoor living. The newly professionally landscaped garden benefits from porcelain tiling, a drainage system within the lawn and raised flower beds. Creating the picture-perfect space for summer nights.

A generous single garage with electric roller shutter door services the property, with ample space for parking. The property also has a driveway with parking for 2/3 cars.

Outstanding build quality and commitment to living a greener life, mean that these properties help you live a more cost-effective lifestyle without compromise. This property also benefits from being in the catchment area of some fantastic schools, including Abbey Infants and Juniors together with Hummersknott and Carmel RC school.

We love: A beautifully presented modern property, set in a desirable West End location. This stunning example of a family home offers style and practicality for all members of the family.
