Portimão is a port city in the Algarve region of southern Portugal. It is known for its historic center, lively marina and proximity to several beaches. The Museum of Portimão is housed in a restored 19th-century canning factory, with exhibits on local history. The church of Nossa Senhora da Conceição, in Gothic style, has tiles. To the south, you will find Praia da Rocha, with ochre cliffs as a backdrop and the medieval fort of Santa Catarina de Ribamar or the Miradouro dos Três Castelos, glimpse the clean and clear sand, the crystal clear waters that reflect all the shades of blue, the whimsical rocks, the splendor of the sun, in a breathtaking natural landscape that is praised both for its grandeur and beauty.
