The property offers amazing views from every window, needs no work and is ready to live. A total renovation was done in 2015. This building is steeped in history with still visible evidence dating back to the 16th century up to the Second World War, truly unique in its kind, the property in the 16th century belonged to Captain Matteo di Pieruccio de' Medici da Barga. Captain Galletto Matteo Bartoli. Currently the village retains the characteristics of a medieval castle and at the center it is possible to visit a small museum with relics dating back to the Second World War. The property is accompanied by an exclusive courtyard of about 50 sqm, a perfect space for relaxing or eating outdoors. This property is the ideal place to get away from hectic city life and really relax in the peaceful Tuscan countryside. It is also the ideal property for anyone who loves walking or cycling in the mountains..

This property is near the Medieval Village of Barga. The tranquillity of the Tuscan countryside and the peaceful lifestyle of the small Tuscan village help to make this a very attractive property.
