Unique Opportunity this kind of centuries old prestigious strong Palazzo strong being on the property market is a very rare and exciting occurrence.

Originally built at the times of the Knights of Malta the property spans approx. 2 280sqm and during its golden age served as a prestigious residence entertaining an endless stream of high society guests and more recently was also a hotel for several years playing host to numerous important guests. The property boasts a lovely lateral layout with all rooms leading out onto a lovely and sizable garden with ample room for hosting large events and offering great potential as a mixed concept and high end catering establishment.

This is a perfect setting for a mixed use property The permits allows for a restaurant wedding venue nightclub wine bar Beer garden or several other ideas. Due to its very privileged location in the heart of this long established town in the immediate vicinity of the President #39 s Palace gives it endless possibilities.

The property benefits from a most impressive entrance hall and plenty of characterful and spectacular features with large and impressive rooms 18 course high ceilings and lots of other features. Could make a beautiful home or mixed use commercial establishment. It will be up to the next owners to carry on its glamorous legacy.
